

Christine Jensen

Canadian conductor, composer and saxophonist

Christine Jensen is one of Canada's most compelling composers and improvisers.

Montreal-based conductor, composer and saxophonist Christine Jensen is an original voice on the international jazz scene, and is regarded as one of Canada's most compelling composers and improvisers.

"There's something special about Christine Jensen Jazz Orchestra's Harbour. Foremost, the album builds on Jensen's acknowledged talent as master composer for over 25 years. She writes songs that stimulate the emotions as well as the intellect, and she arranges them using rich, cross-instrumental blends and fresh, punctuated motifs" ... All About Jazz

READ MORE:

AWARDS:

JUNO awards in 2023, 2014 and 2011
Downbeat Rising Star in Arranger, Soprano Sax, Big Band various years
Four ADISQ Award nominations (ADISQ)
Two OPUS Awards (CQM)
Oscar Peterson Award from FIJM 2017
Downbeat 5 star review (Masterpiece) for Habitat
Two-time SOCAN award recipient

STATS:

Spotify: 3,853 monthly listeners
Facebook: 1.3K followers
Youtube: over 35K views for all videos

Total Potential Reach across social media
45,000 Accounts

Christine Jensen LIVE world premiere - Jan 11, 2025 in NYC at Jazz at Lincoln Center

Releases

For Jazz Orchestra

Harbour

Under the Influence (2021)
Transatlantic Conversations (2015)
Habitat (2013)
Treelines (2010)

Small Group Releases

Day Moon (2023)
Infinitude (2016)
A Shorter Distance (2014)

famGROUP

Justin Time

Canada Council for the Arts
Conseil des arts du Canada

Management & Booking
Artist Web
Facebook
Youtube
Spotify